ANNOUNCEMENTS

Among the first to appear is the calendar of the Springfield Republican, always a welcome arrival and a handy and serviceable reminder for the new year.

FOR "THAT MAN'S" XMAS.

Here's the Answer to a Very Puzzling Question.

Just before the Christmas holidays, when the stores are thronged by the "last-minute rush"; when you're often racked your brains for an idea that will solve the question of what to give husband, father, Brother Tom or Jack; when you've looked back on former trials, due to your having picked the wrong tie or of socks that were too small—did it ever occur to you that you might settle the matter quickly and satisfactorily without long and weary sleuthing by giving him a glass humidor of Prince Albert, the national joy smoke?

It's a neat looking crystal-glass receptacle, holding a pound of the best-bellied tobacco moist, fresh and fragrant all the time.

You will find it in all stores where tobacco is sold, and you needn't hesitate to walk right in and ask for it. The clerk won't bite and the tobacco can't, either. The bite has been taken out of P. A. by a wonderful patented process. Think of the pleasure it will save you. It's a gift that will not be slipped to the janitor or the office boy, like a tie that doesn't strike "his" fancy.

NEW CANDY STORE.

Progress Confectionery Co. Opens Attractive Place on Franklin Square.

Attractive with its decoration of Christmas bells and green and its new mahogany and marble fixtures the new confectionery store of the Progress Confectionery Co. was opened for the first time on Wednesday afternoon in the store on Franklin square that has been specially fitted up for them. A few doors from the Thayer building. During the afternoon about 700 coupons, good for a free box of assorted chocolates on Saturday were distributed, and there may be some left. The convenient location made the store a stopping place for many of the traveling public as they lingered in the inviting spot and the large number of marble top tables and seats provided made it certain that a large patronage can be taken care of at any time. The firm will conduct this store on the same business principles that have brought them success in Woonsocket and Putnam.

Besides complete new fixtures of the most modern form, a tile floor and a steel ceiling has been put in and an orchestration furnishes music.

INVESTIGATION OF CHARITIES AND BENEVOLENCES

Announced by Chairman of Federal Commission on Industrial Relations.

Denver, Dec. 16.—Frank P. Walsh, chairman of the federal commission on industrial relations, today announced that the commission would begin an investigation of the Russell Sage Foundation, the Baron De Hirsch fund, all the Carnegie benevolences and all the Rockefeller charities. In addition to the Rockefeller Foundation, the investigation will open in New York January 11.

Investigation of the various foundations, according to Chairman Walsh, the commission will seek to determine how their policies are shaped and by whom, their relation to high finance, the extent to which their charters may be stretched under the United States constitution and whether they constitute a menace or a benefit to the nation.

Among the witnesses who will be summoned, according to Mr. Walsh's announcement, are President Arthur T. Hadley of Yale; Dr. Charles W. Eliot, president emeritus of Harvard; Andrew Carnegie, John D. Rockefeller, J. P. Morgan, Daniel Guggenheim, E. H. Gary, T. N. Vail, president of the American Telephone and Telegraph company; George W. Perkins, Frank A. Vanderlip, president of the National City bank of New York; T. P. Shonta, Jacob Schiff, John Hays Hammond, mine owner; Cleveland H. Dodge, New York banker; E. C. Fryk, Seth Low, Samuel Untermyer, the calling of John D. Rockefeller, senior, to the stand, according to Mr. Walsh, has not yet been decided upon.

Mr. Walsh said the commission proposed to investigate the charge that the creation of the Rockefeller and other foundations represents the movement of "an effort to perpetuate the present position of predatory wealth, through the corruption of the sources of public information."

time, and is distinctly a story of the sea. It is full of thrilling events and gorgeous scenery and the great climax is withheld until the very last of the film, so that the tenseness of the plot-interest is never relaxed a moment. Bessie Eyton and Thomas Santschi are the leading couple in the story and the fact that they are surrounded by the great besties of the Pacific coast as background makes this picture one of great promise. His Dominant Passion is the Vitaphone feature with William Humphries in one of his greatest character creations, while The Girl of the Tenements is the sterling Biersbach offering. When Slippery Slim met the Champion is the big western comedy. A big feature for Saturday is another in the splendid series of Althea Joyce and Tom Moore dramas. This last named is a beautiful story of great intensity and introduces both of the favorites.

AT THE AUDITORIUM.

Three fine vaudeville acts have been secured for the last half of the week at this popular vaudeville house and the bill will be headed by Rees and Timman, two funny fellows, in a novel acrobatic act in which they perform startling as well as funny stunts. Till's Mariettes will be the second act on the bill and these little waifs people have a very clever act in which they perform a dainty singing comedienne who plays violin and wears nice clothes. In the Mutual movies there is The Last Shot, a thrilling Romance drama, and Our Mutual Girl, as seen at the Yale-Princeton football game. Matinee at 2:30 today, 3 and 10 cents; evening at 7 and 15 cents. Come early and be sure of a seat.
